What we learned this morning in
Kid's Connection

The Message:
"Christ Alone"

Christ Connection:
The church leaders met in Jerusalem to answer a tough question: Can a person be saved by faith alone or was something more needed? The early church agreed that because of Jesus' death and resurrection, He alone is all we need to be saved.

Main Point:
The Church in Jerusalem encouraged Gentile believers.

Family Discussion Starters:

- *What did some of the men want Gentile believers to do?
- *What did Peter say the Gentile believers needed to do?
- *Why can't the Old Testament law save us?
- *Why is faith in Jesus enough?

Family Activity:

- As a family, write encouraging notes to people in your church. Deliver them next time your church gathers.
- Print a picture of a famous painting. Let your children add to it. Ask them what would happen if they painted on it in real life.
