What we learned today in
Kid's Connection

Keep Your Eyes on the Prize

Christ Connection:

Paul saw his suffering for the gospel as following Jesus in some small way and counted it a privilege to suffer for the cause of the one who gave His life for him. We, like Paul, should not be surprised at suffering. It is a part of the path of every Christian—some certainly greater than others.

Main Point:

Our real treasure is in Jesus.

Family Discussion Starters:

- *Why were Paul and Silas in prison?
- *How did God rescue them from their cell?
- *Why did the jailer think all the prisoners had escaped?
- *What did Paul tell the jailer he had to do to be saved?

Family Activity:

Hide a picture of the cross somewhere in your house. Tell your children that you have the best treasure in the whole world hidden somewhere in your house and they are going to go on a treasure hunt to find it. When they find the cross, explain that what Jesus did for us on the cross is the most important treasure and nothing else compares to it.
